

LIFESTREAM APPOINTS TWO TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

LifeStream recently named two new members to its board of directors at the nonprofit organization's 2016 annual meeting.

Joining LifeStream's board are Gloria Bailen-Worden of South Dartmouth and Leonard W. Sullivan of Mattapoisett.

Ms. Bailen-Worden has over 30 years of broadcast television, corporate and documentary film experience. A former professional ballet dancer, she began her television career at NBC News and later worked at ABC News 20/20 for eight years. As an independent producer she produced numerous television specials for ABC News Nightline, Discovery Health, Travel Channel and Lifetime. She continues to produce, write and supervise documentations, television and other non-fiction programming.

Leonard Sullivan is a First Executive Vice President & Senior Loan Officer at Bristol County Savings Bank where he is responsible for the Commercial, Consumer and Residential Loan areas, as well as oversight of business development activities. Sullivan currently serves as Chairman of the University of Massachusetts-Dartmouth Foundation and serves on the Board of the Community Foundation of Southeastern Massachusetts as well as numerous other area organizations. He is a graduate of the University of Rhode Island and the America's Community Bankers National School of Banking at Fairfield University.

“We are extremely pleased that Gloria and Len have joined our board,” said John Latawicz, LifeStream President/CEO. “We will benefit greatly from their experience and skills.”
